Scalloped Nugget Holder

Inspired by Nicole Heady, this cute package holds 2 Hershey's nuggets

Supplies:

- 1-2x4 in. sheet of Designer Series Paper (DSP)
- 2- 1x3 in. pieces of DSP)
- 1-2x13/8 in. piece of coordinating cardstock
- I- $1^{1/4} \times 5^{1/2}$ in. piece of acetate
- 2 eyelets
- SU! Scallop Circle punch, I/8" holepunch and eyelet setter (or cropodile), glue dot, snail adhesive

Directions:

- Punch 2 scalloped circles out of 2x4 in. piece of DSP using the SU! punch.
- Fold each scallop circle in 2/3" so there are 6 scallops on one side of the fold, and 8 on the other.
- Punch holes for eyelets on larger "half" of each scalloped circle.
- Attach the smaller "half" of each scalloped circle to the long sides of the 1-3/8 x 2 in. piece of cardstock.
- Score acetate at 1¾ in. from each end and crease.
- Adhere middle of acetate to the side where the scallop is attached to the cardstock w/one glue dot.
- Wrap 2 Hershey's nuggets with each of the 1x3 in. pieces of DSP.
- Insert ribbon through eyelet holes.
- Put nuggets in container.
- Wrap with acetate pieces and gently pull the scalloped circles together and tie a knot (I emphasize gently because if you pull too hard the eyelets will be torn out of the paper).
